

SPRING SEMESTER 2020/2021

Course title: Introduction to Medical Communication, II year

Organization of the course:

- Practical classes: Practical classes will take place at ul. Litewska 14/16.
- e-Lectures: Lectures are run on WUM e-learning platform and coordinated by a Department of Medical Communication [separate from the Department of Medical Psychology and Medical Communication]

Credit: the course credit is obtained basing on active participation in the classes, finishing all e-lectures and submitting a written assignment on the e-learning platform (embedded in the e-lectures).

WINTER SEMESTER 2020/2021

Course title: Medical Psychology, III year

Organization of the course (seminars and practical classes): seminars are conducted online via MT as synchronic meetings (video connections) followed by a set of tasks to be performed before the next class. Practical classes will take place at ul. Litewska 14/16.

Credit: the course credit is obtained basing on active participation in the seminars and classes and written test conducted at the 7th meeting.

Course title: Medical Communication, III year

Organization of the course (practical classes): Practical classes will take place at ul. Litewska 14/16.

Credit: the course credit is obtained basing on active participation in the classes, participation in the video-recorded role-playing exercise as a doctor and as a patient, preparation of the essay self-evaluating communication skills performed in the role-playing exercise.

Aktualizacja: 23.02.2021